WALTHAM WEST SUBURBAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Dear Waltham Residents and Guests,

The Waltham West Suburban Chamber of Commerce is proud to serve our members and surrounding communities. We are pleased to provide this Restaurant and Visitors Guide as a valuable resource. Before you spend your dollars out of town, please consider the many wonderful businesses we have right here in Waltham.

Why patronize locally owned Waltham businesses? Because supporting local businesses has a profound impact on our local economy. In fact, research strongly indicates that buying locally is literally the life blood of a community—buying in Waltham keeps Waltham alive. When you spend your dollars locally, you are investing in your community. Local businesses hire local residents, pay local taxes, support many local organizations and charities, and many local business owners reside right here in our City.

So Support Your Local Businesses And Help Waltham Thrive!

The Chamber strives to accomplish many goals. We are an advocate and resource for local businesses, we are a community partner and we are focused on economic development. Most importantly, we are strongly committed to supporting and promoting buying locally. This allows our businesses to thrive and proudly fund Waltham City traditions like the annual Holiday Lighting, Waltham Holiday Prelude, Historic Waltham Month, Downtown Waltham celebrations, and the honoring of Waltham's outstanding citizens, to mention just a few.

To become a member of the Chamber or to find out more about our organization, please visit our website at www.walthamchamber.com.

Red Bird is like a great jazz interpretation of a standard: inventive and exciting yet familiar and welcoming. Chef Dan Stokes puts his own spin on modern classics, using seasonally inspired ingredients (many of which are locally sourced). Desserts, all made in house, also change with seasons. The menu emphasizes the comforting and the vibrant—food that satiates, heartens, and delights.

harmonious philosophy to its beverage program. Red Bird stocks familiar labels alongside selections from local distillers and brewers. Craft cocktails are riffs on traditional favorites, and we search for unusual wines from around the country.

Red Bird is small and proud of it. Being smaller means that we can focus on what's important: making great food and creating a joyous atmosphere. We love being a neighborhood joint. Regulars wanted.

Watertown Savings Bank is proud to be an independent, community bank that you can count on for all your financial needs. And, unlike the many local banks that have merged or been acquired in the past several years, we're committed to staying independent.

As a mutual bank, we do not answer to stockholders, so we're free to concentrate on serving our customers and neighbors in the best possible way. Our customers are our first priority. We care about you, and we care about Waltham.

We opened our Waltham branch office to help families save for the future and purchase homes, help new and existing businesses prosper, and contribute substantially to local charities and non-profit organizations. We strive to keep on the leading edge of a rapidly changing industry, always improving and evolving with you.

For your convenience, at our 6 Lexington Street branch (at the corner of Lexington Street and Main Street) we have a Drive-up Teller Service, Night Depository, and Safe Deposit Boxes.

There are also two free-standing Watertown Savings Bank ATMs located in Waltham. One is located at 800 Lexington Street. The other, opened in November 2015, is located at the Colonial Plaza (also known as the River Street Plaza), directly in front of Dunkin Donuts at 49 River Street.
